Laws to the Game of Soccer

General

Please note that The Woodlands Township's 7v7 Soccer League adopts the latest FIFA Laws in conjunction to the additional Township Rules and Regulations listed below.

Exceptions to Law - Township 7v7 Specific Format Rules

- 1. Player
 - a. A team may play with a minimum of five (5) players.
 - i. A team may temporarily continue the game with fewer than five (5) players if one (1) or more of its players are temporarily out of the game due to injury, equipment, yellow card suspension, or otherwise.
- 2. The home team shall kick off in the 1st half and the visitn gteam shall kick off in the 2nd half. There shall be no coin flip. The visiting team shall choose which side of the field to start the game.
- 3. Both teams are responsible for providing at least one (1) suitable game ball.
- 4. Yellow Cards: When a player receives a yellow card, they must be immediately substituted out of the match for a minimum of five (5) minutes. If there are no substitute players available for the team, the team will play short until the referee allows the yellow carded player to return to the game.
 - a. A team is not allowed to play short with any less than four (4) players. If an additional yellow card is given and drops the number of players on the field to three (3), the matchwill end and the score will stand.
 - b. The referee may add additional time to a yellow carded player's suspension due to 'delay of game tactics' and the team will return to full strength at the refere's discretion.
- 5. Slide Tackles: "Slide tackles" by any player (including the goalkeeper) are prohibited and will result in a direct free kick to the opposing team.

- a. For field players, a slide tackle is an attempt to win possession of the ball, typically by sliding or lunging along the ground. Additionally, a tackle where a player challenges an opponent for the ball while sliding on the ground for any reason (to include a knee on the ground with an outstretched leg) will be deemed a slide tackle. A player that seeks to block a shot or pass by sliding on the ground and within playing distance of the opposing player shall be deemed to have committed a slide tackle.
- b. Merely playing on the ground in a dangerous manner is not a slide tackle and shall only be sanctioned with an indirect free kick.
- c. For goalkeepers, a slide tackle is a feet-first attempt to block or win possession of the ball, typically by sliding long the ground. However, goalkeepers are permitted to slide sideways, hands-first, or otherwise slide along the ground in an attempt to block or win possession of the ball provided they do not lead with one or both feet and do not create a dangerous environment.
- d. A “slip” is typically the result of being off balance or field conditions and may lead to a challenge that will be sanctioned as a slide tackle if the player attempts to block or win possession of the ball while slipping.
6. “Sliding” is permitted os long as the player is not challenging an opposing player for the ball and is not within playing distance of an opposing player. For example, a player may slide to keep a ball in-bounds or to prevent a ball from entering the goal. A player may also slide in an attempt to block a shot or shoot the ball so long as he is not within playing distance of an opponent.
7. Penalty-kicks shall be ten (10) yards from the goal line. During free-kicks, defending players shall be at least ten (10) yards from the ball or on the goal line if the kick is within ten (10) yards of the goal line. All opposing players must move at least ten (10) yards away from the ball on all free kicks and may be issued a yellow card for failing to do so. The kicking team does NOT need to first request the opposing team move away ten (10) yards on a free kick; it is required.
8. Substitutions may be made at any stoppage but only after obtaining permission of the referee.
9. There is NO offside.

Co-Ed Division Exceptions

1. The six (6) field players may consist of more than two (2) women, but no more than four (4) men.
2. The goalkeeper may be a man or a woman and does not count towards the above ratio for field players.
3. Male players are required to use skill and permitted to use reasonable force when challenging female opponents for the ball.

4. Disciplinary Cards: If a female player receives a red card, the number of players for that team must be reduced by a male player in order to satisfy the required ratio of female players on the field unless the team is able to maintain three (2) female field players following the ejection.
5. When a team is playing short due to cautions or ejections, any female player substituted may only be replaced by a female player.

4. All referee judgement decisions are FINAL and may not be protested to the league. Only incorrect applications of the rules may be protested.
5. The official match report shall be reviewed by the League with authority to discipline for cautions, ejections and other disciplinary issues.

Misconduct

1. Verbal abuse of league referees/officials will not be tolerated and may result in serious disciplinary action as deemed necessary by the League.
2. There will be absolutely NO DRINKING OF ALCOHOL prior to or during a match. Violation of this rule will result in an equivalent red card (current game and next week) suspension. Please remember that glass (bottles) is not allowed within any of The Woodlands Township's parks.

Appeals

1. Any team or player making an appeal to the League must send an email no later than two (2) days after the event took place (the Tuesday following the match).

Fights

1. Fights involving two (2) or more players from the same team will automatically result in forfeiture/abandonment of the match. Additionally, any player on the bench which enters the field without the referee's permission in an attempt to participate in any fight will receive a red card and be suspended a minimum of two (2) weeks.
 - a. Teams face the possibility of disbandment
 - b. Players on a disbanded team may be eligible for reinstatement by the league under the following stipulations:
 - i. Serve appropriate league suspension; and
 - ii. Agree to stipulations put forth in league reinstatement policy

Cautionary and Send-Off Cards

1. Yellow (caution) and red (ejection) cards may be issued by a referee at any time starting with an individual's arrival at the field complex and until departure from the field complex.
2. Yellow and red cards are cumulative over a one (1) season period which includes both league playoffs and across all divisions if a player plays on multiple teams.
3. Yellow cards count as one (1) disciplinary point and red cards count as three (3) disciplinary points. A player that receives a red card as the result of two yellow cards in the same game shall only be assessed three (3) disciplinary points.
 - a. Three (3) disciplinary points in a season shall result in a minimum one (1) week suspension
 - b. Six (6) disciplinary points in a season shall result in a minimum two (2) week suspension.
 - c. Nine (9) disciplinary points in a season shall result in a minimum six (6) week suspension and automatic suspension of the individual for the remainder of the current season
 - d. The League Coordinator/Specialist has the discretion to increase the above suspensions, including imposition of an indefinite suspension, depending on the circumstances
4. All disciplinary point total will reset to zero (0) at the beginning of each season. However, any existing suspensions shall carry-over from one season to the next season. For example, if a player is suspended two games and there is only one week left in the current season, that player must sit out the first week of games for the next season.

Susensions

1. Ejections from a match involving serious foul play, violent conduct, and/or spitting shall result in a minimum two (2) week suspension to be reviewed by the League Coordinator/Specialist who retains the authority to levy additional disciplinary action as deemed necessary.

- i. Fighting/striking/punching another player – minimum one (1) season suspension.

2. Any individual receiving a red card MUST leave the field complex and/or The Woodlands Township property within four (4) minutes and may not participate in any other soccer activities in any capacity (even as a spectator) for the remainder of the day. Failure to comply will result in the match being forfeited by his/her team and the red carded player may be subject to additional suspension.
3. In order for a suspension to be fully served, the player must miss the full week of matches. This means that a player who plays on multiple teams must sit out from all games in all divisions in which they play for one week. For example, a player who receives a red card in their Division II game, but also plays on teams in Rec III and Over 35 Division I, must sit out for their three teams for one week.
 - a. “One week suspension” is equivalent to one full day of matches, regardless of division.
 - b. All suspensions will be carried over into subsequent seasons if necessary.
 - i. Players do not receive credit towards their suspension period for weeks in which their team does not participate.
4. Reinstatement Policy – Any player suspended for an extended period (anything above a league minimum) may be subject to reinstatement on a probationary status and must agree to and sign the reinstatement policy set forth by the League Coordinator.
 - a. The stipulations set forth in the reinstatement policy vary for each individual and are dependent upon the severity of the incident resulting in suspension and the player’s disciplinary history.
