

Player Loan policy and procedures for tournaments/leagues 2025

Borrowing a player internally (within our Breakers club):

1. DOC (Director of Coaching) must be notified and approve the request* A text message or email to the DOC and the Coach you're borrowing from is preferred. PLEASE, DO NOT ASK A PLAYER TO PARTICIPATE IN A TOURNAMENT OR LEAGUE GAME, PRIOR TO ASKING YOUR FELLOW BREAKERS COACH FIRST.
2. Notify your club Registrar. The Registrar is responsible for ALL player card transactions and will need to verify the player is in good standing with the club.
3. If the player is cleared and approved to be borrowed, the Registrar will provide the player's card to the Coach and/or Manager.
4. Coach and/or manager will make the arrangements to collect and return the copy of the player's medical release form.

*Please note: If you're a registered USCLUB team wanting to borrow a player from our club that's in a different association (i.e., E64 or Coast League) The player will need to be added to your USCLUB/SoCal roster, same rules mentioned above will apply. E64 does not allow guest players for any E64/USYS events.

SoCal and Club Premier1 and 2(E64) do allow for club pass during league. The same rules apply for club passing players (players in the same league different teams) must be approved by DOC and Registrar.
